

Medical Library Association Teleconference

Hosted by the Spencer S. Eccles Health Sciences Library

WHAT: Partnering for Public Health: Information, Librarians, and the Public Health Workforce

WHEN: Wednesday, March 9, 2005

TIME: Noon to 2:00 P.M.

WHERE: History of Medicine Room, upper level

RSVP: Email Jeanne at jeannele@lib.med.utah.edu

OVERVIEW

Goal: The goals of this teleconference are to enhance knowledge of and to encourage participation in the provision of information about public health by health sciences librarians.

OBJECTIVES

- To provide a fundamental knowledge about public health
- To explore the information needs of the public health workforce
- To present a sample of resources currently available to meet their information needs
- To demonstrate collaboration between health sciences librarians and the public health workforce

PRESENTERS:

- Nancy Allee, AHIP, director, Public Health Library and Informatics, University of Michigan-Ann Arbor
- Ann B. Duesing, outreach librarian for the University of Virginia's Claude Moore Health Sciences Library, John Cook Wyllie Library, University of Virginia's College-Wise
- Jody Henry Hershey, director, New River Health District, Christiansburg, VA

VIDEO-TAPED PRESENTERS

- Kristine M. Gebbie, director, Center for Health Policy and Doctoral Studies, School of Nursing, Columbia University, New York, NY
- Bernard J. Turnock, clinical professor of community health sciences and director, Center for Public Health Practice, School of Public Health, University of Illinois-Chicago

For more information visit the MLA teleconference website at <http://www.mlanet.org/education/telecon/publichealth/>

Questions? Call Jeanne at 585-6744 or email jeannele@lib.med.utah.edu

